CERTIFICATION CLASSES

Air Conditioning Recycling and Recovery

This is a series of classes designed for Technician certification in Refrigeration for Refrigeration Recovery. There will be instruction for Type I, II, Type I and Universal. The class includes classroom instruction, 2-3 contact hours state testing.

Instructor: Carl Costner

Pre-registration and registration is paid before a week start. Registration is between the hours of 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Location: MTCC Campus, William Harold Smith Bldg (19) Dates: September 4, 11, and 25, 2010 Hours: 8:00 am - 1:00 pm Class Hours: 12

Motor Vehicle Dealer Education

FP 432 established a new license renewal training requirements for used motor vehicle dealers and others involved in the sale and distribution of motor vehicles. MTCC will be offering the training requirement for a $5.00 parking sticker, $3.00 student ID badge, and $1.25 for a valid state ID badge.

Instructor: Dennis S. Mask, Sr.

Pre-registration and registration is paid before a week start. Registration is between the hours of 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Location: MTCC Campus, William Harold Smith Building (19), Room 111 Dates: September 25, 2010 or November 17, 2010 Time: 8:30 am - 3:10 pm Class Hours: 6

Phlebotomy Course

Phlebotomists are an important part of the laboratory team, performing one of the most critical tasks: the collection of patient samples. This program prepares individuals to obtain blood specimens for the purpose of laboratory testing. This continuing education program includes classroom and laboratory instruction and clinical training.

Instructors: McMurry/McGovney

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Must be 18 years of age or older
2. Must provide documentation of complete immunization series as required by the North Carolina Public Health Program
3. Must have a completed high school or GED transcript or copy of high school diploma.

Pre-registration is also required at the time. Class size will be limited to the first students that meet the eligibility requirements.

Registration Fee: $175.00 plus $15.40 for liability insurance; $5.00 parking stickers; $3.00 student ID badge, and $1.25 accident insurance ($126.75 total cost). There is an additional cost for the book, materials, and uniform. (There will be an additional cost for the book, materials, and uniform. All of the above must be presented at the time of pre-registration. There will be no exceptions made.

Pre-registration for eligible applicants will be on August 10th and 12th, 2010 from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm. Payment of registration fee and insurance required at the time. Class size will be limited to the first 20 students that meet the eligibility requirements.

Registration Fee: $175.00 plus $15.40 for liability insurance; $5.00 parking stickers; $3.00 student ID badge, and $1.25 accident insurance ($126.75 total cost). There is an additional cost for the book, materials, and uniform. (There will be an additional cost for the book, materials, and uniform. All of the above must be presented at the time of pre-registration. There will be no exceptions made.

Location: MTCC Campus, William Harold Smith Bldg (19) Dates: September 13, 2010 Hours: 8:00 am - 5:00 pm Class Hours: 10

Nursing Assistant I Class

This course introduces basic nursing skills required to provide personal care for patients, residents, or clients in a health care setting. Topics include client rights, hygiene, preparing a client for health care and healing, vital signs, elimination, nutrition, emergencies, and infection control. Upon successful completion of the course, the student is eligible to take the NC RTA examination for certification.

Instructor: Walker/Young

Pre-registration and registration is paid before a week start. Registration is between the hours of 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Location: MTCC Campus, Bldg 17, Room 105 Dates and Times: Wednesday and Friday nights 4:30 - 10:00 pm Saturdays 8:00 am - 9:00 pm. The first class begins on August 14th and continues through October 2nd.

EMT Basic

This is the first level for the Emergency Medical Technician in preparation to take the NCOME or NC EMT. The course is designed for students in the basic-hospital emergency care such as treatment for shock, bleeding, burns, poisonings, childbirth, pediatric emergencies, CPR, use of ambulance equipment and communications to emergency department. Class Prerequisite: High School Diploma/GED or Adult High School Diploma.

Registration Fee: $250.00 plus, Technology Fee $65.00 for the self supporting classes vary, depending on the course.

Location: MTCC Campus, William Harold Smith Bldg (19) Dates: September 13, 2010 Time: TBA Class Hours: 10

Computer Classes

Microsoft XP Applications

This class is designed to increase your efficiency of using Microsoft Office XP. Students will learn through hands-on instruction and helpful classroom examples. The various features of Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, and Outlook.

Instructor: Barry Love

Pre-registration and registration is paid before a week start. Registration is between the hours of 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Location: MTCC Campus, William Harold Smith Bldg (19) Dates: Monday, Wednesday, and some Saturdays. Times: 9:00 am - 10:00 pm (Saturdays); 8:00 am - 4:00 pm (Mondays). Registration will be held on Monday, July 26th, 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm. The first day of class is Monday, August 16, 2010 Class Hours: 180
JOY IS W.O.Y. (Woman of the Year)

by Michael Lavender
Director of External Relations

The Board of Directors of the National Association of Professional Women (NAPW) has named Joy M. Brown, Business Department Chairperson at McDowell Technical Community College, as Professional Woman of the Year for 2010-2011. Przestwor was nominated for the award by her colleagues in NAPW and chosen by the organization's board of directors.

Przestwor, a native of South Bend, Indiana, has been a member of the National Association of Professional Women since she was a business major at Taylor University in Indiana. She earned her master of divinity degree from Harvard University in 1986 and her doctor of ministry degree at the New England Theological Seminary in 2008.

She began teaching at McDowell Tech in the fall of 2000, and from 2002 to 2007, she was Chairperson of the Business Technology Department.

Przestwor is an accomplished instructor who has mentored and prepared professional careers throughout Western North Carolina. She is known for her academic excellence and professionalism.

Since leaving undergraduate college, Przestwor has been a faculty member at the University of California, Los Angeles. She has been awarded honors and awards for her outstanding contributions to education and the community. She is a respected and beloved figure in the academic and professional world.

Przestwor was a graduate assistant at Harvard Divinity School while she studied Judaism-Christian theology, as well as philosophical and religious traditions. Later, she taught part-time at Anne-Marie College. She has served on the faculties of several universities and colleges, including Brown University, the University of California, and Harvard University.

Przestwor has served as a professor at Harvard Divinity School, where she taught courses in Judaism and Christianity. She has received numerous awards and recognitions for her work, including a Fulbright Scholarship and a Guggenheim Fellowship.

Przestwor has been a leader in the Jewish and Christian communities, and has served on several boards and committees. She has been active in local and national organizations, and has been recognized for her leadership and service.

Przestwor is a sought-after speaker and consultant, and has given numerous lectures and workshops on a variety of topics, including Jewish studies and interfaith dialogue.

She is a member of several professional organizations, including the American Academy of Religion and the Association for Jewish Studies.

Przestwor has been a trailblazer in the field of Jewish studies, and has made significant contributions to the understanding of the Jewish religious tradition. She is a respected scholar and educator, and her work has had a profound impact on the field of Jewish studies.

Przestwor is a true leader in the Jewish community, and her contributions have been recognized with numerous awards and honors. She is a beloved figure in the academic and professional world, and her legacy will continue to inspire and influence future generations of scholars.